1H18 KEY HIGHLIGHTS

Continued strong revenue growth with increasing operating leverage

- Continued regulatory change, expanding digital distribution channels, and the desire for increased operating efficiency across the financial services industry, coupled with a maturing industry in emerging markets, are driving Bravura's growth
- Wealth Management Revenue up 26%¹ to A$72.8m offsetting the previously flagged loss of a Funds Administration contract to drive Group Revenue up 10%¹ to A$102.9m
- Wealth Management EBITDA up 40%¹ to A$21.6m outpacing Funds Administration EBITDA and investment in Corporate, to increase Group EBITDA up 2%¹ to $18.5m
- Both Funds Administration and Wealth Management are expected to grow in 2H FY18

A decade of investment in Sonata is continuing to drive strong growth

- Achieved client wins in South Africa (Discovery) and New Zealand (ASB Bank) with a strengthening pipeline of opportunities across EMEA and APAC coupled with increased operating leverage
- Sonata's compelling value proposition to assist clients in tackling regulatory changes, digital, and the need for a modern and scalable technology platform has resulted in Sonata revenue up 35%¹ to A$56.7m in 1H18 and now makes up 55% of total revenue

Strong business performance is delivering attractive shareholder returns

- Dividend declared of 4.5 cents per share, representing 68% of EPS
- Return on equity² of 24% in 1H18 underpinned by Bravura's consistent and long-term investment in product development, deep market knowledge and expertise, sound business model, driving significant operating leverage

STRONG GROWTH IN RECURRING REVENUE

For personal use only

- Recurring revenue is up 12% in 1H18 compared to the pcp and comprises 68% of total revenue
- Recurring revenue has grown as new clients are added and existing clients add functionality, underpinned by the long-term nature of Bravura's customer contracts
- Bravura's significant recurring revenue base provides a high degree of certainty around its long-term earnings profile and future cash flow expectations
- New contract wins also attract implementation fees over the initial 2 to 3 year period, as clients deeply embed Bravura's solutions into their business's target operating model

- Recurring revenue comprises maintenance, managed services, and in-production professional services from ongoing client demand
- Implementation fees comprise professional services from initial implementation requirements
- Licence fees are earned on a one-off or annual basis

Revenue (A$m)¹

■ 1H ■ 2H

1. Presented on a constant currency basis

2. Exchange rates had no material impact from FY17 to FY18

- Revenue down 16% and EBITDA down 26% due to the impact of the previously flagged contract expiry
- EBITDA margin continued above 40%, with a strong pipeline of client opportunities expected to return the segment to growth in 2H FY18
- Strong underlying business momentum with 4 clients now live for Bravura's SaaS offering, and further SaaS implementations scheduled for 2018
- Strong pipeline of contracted work in 2H18 from existing clients, including greater use of Funds Administration's digital solutions and straight through messaging capabilities
- The SaaS offering creates new opportunities for growth in the UK market giving smaller and mid-sized fund managers the ability to access a fully managed digital solution with standardised functionality at an attractive price point for this market

FY18 OUTLOOK

For personal use only

Strengthened sales pipeline

- Bravura is well placed to take advantage of strong demand in the UK, ANZ, and South Africa
- Strong demand underpinned by the need for digital access, regulatory changes, and the replacement of legacy IT systems
- Both Funds Administration and Wealth Management are expected to grow in 2H FY18

Increased scale driving operating leverage

- Increasing scale and efficiency, reduced competition, and better pricing offerings are driving increased operating leverage
- Increasing investment in Sonata continues to position the product ahead of the competition

Raised earnings guidance

- As a result of strong demand, full-year 2018 guidance has now been revised upwards resulting in forecast underlying EPS growth in the high-teens
